

Alan Beauvais

ALAN BEAUVAIS - Alan has been making up songs and stories in his head for as long as he can remember. He picked up a guitar for the first time in 1978 and was writing songs not long after. He was in the Air Force at the time and when he was honorably discharged in 1981, he moved to Texas. He never really wanted to make a living with his music because he always felt that if this thing that was so important to him became his job, then it wouldn't be the same. He never wanted it to be something he had to do to put food on the table. His music is his creative outlet. He can say in absolute sincerity – he doesn't know where he would be today without it. So, he began to hang out with guitar players and songwriters and in 1994. He first joined the Fort Worth Songwriters' Association in 1995, and then became the Vice President. He has played in coffee shops, bars, festivals, on flatbed trailers, on TV, internet shows, parties and weddings on the beach. Never because he had to and he only wrote and played what he wanted and as the poet said "has made all the difference". Alan is presently the Vice President of the FWSA again and concentrates on community outreach opportunities. He wants to share his love of songwriting with other songwriters - beginners and old pro's alike.
