

“Neverland”: Written by Diron Mills and Michael Conner

BACK

I never knew eyes could be so beautiful
Or that a smile could make me feel so wonderful.
Never knew a kiss could make a grown man melt
Or that your skin would be the softest thing I’ve felt.
I never had falling for you in my plan
Babe you’ve got me living in Neverland

I never wanted to stay in bed
When Monday morning rolled around.
Never was the guy on Friday night
To go out and paint the town.
Never want to dance in the rain
Or Stroll on the beach hand in hand.
But that’s how life is
Living in Neverland.

I never knew eyes could be so beautiful
Or that a smile could make me feel so wonderful.
Never knew a kiss could make a grown man melt
Or that your skin would be the softest thing I’ve felt.
I never had falling for you in my plan
Babe you’ve got me living in Neverland.

I never saw me on one knee
Offering you this ring.
Never knew the word “I Do”
Could make my heart sing.

I never knew eyes could be so beautiful
Or that a smile could make me feel so wonderful.
Never knew a kiss could make a grown man melt
Or that your skin would be the softest thing I’ve felt.
I never had falling for you in my plan
Babe you’ve got me living in Neverland.
